

Hi Folks

The transfer to the new venue went smoothly with everyone giving a hand to make sure we got all the gear safely across. The new site appears to be terrific, one which gives us scope for expanding the club and our activities. Well done to all who helped!

After the successful beginners courses, we now have quite a number of new members joining us. Please give them a friendly welcome and keep an eye out in case they need any assistance as they take their first tentative shots

John Goode has the Christmas party all organised and as you can see on page 5, he is now working hard to provide entertainment for the night. Those of a nervous disposition may also wish to hurry over page 6 as it contains an explicit photo of Roy's bloomers.

I would also like to send my congratulations to David Fellman on becoming the Compound Archer County Champion. Well done David!

New email address

Alan Munson, the club secretary has changed his email address again.

His new address is prioryjazz@btinternet.com

Welcome to two new family members

A perfect bull from Andy.

This Father and Daughter team is Andy Gillard and Catherine.
A perfect bull on his first night has given him something to live up to.

I suspect Catherine will soon match it.

252 and 300 Awards

A convalescing Sarah valiantly struggles up to receive her 300 black badge

Colin gains the prestigious 300 Red badge

Rob is the first to gain the highest 300 badge. This is the diamond badge. I hope he isn't expecting to get a real diamond.

Tom Hammond starts his medal collection with a 252 medal at 15 yds. Well done Tom!

Karl Boak receiving his 252 medal at 20yds

Steve Wood 252 medal at 40yds (and bravery award for wearing his grannie's hat.)

Andy collects his 252 medal for 80yds.

And Zoli gets his Bowman award.

252 Medals for both El and her Mum Serian

A proud day for El as she collects her 252 medal for recurve 20yd.

Mum of course is determined not to be left behind and collects her 252 medal for recurve 30yd.

Well done to you both.

We wait to see who is first to get the next medal.

New Member

Please welcome
Jason Evans
to the club.

Mr Cool?

Rob doesn't look too worried about being shot.

It obviously went nowhere near his wallet.

Birthday wishes this month go to

- Jason Evans
- Derek Tullock
- Roy Bates
- Terry Ruffles
- Mike Gissing
- Rob Garnham
- Jason Brummitt
- Harriet Robertson

Best wishes to you all

Apologies to Karl Boak

He is obviously NOT a vampire whose image disappears from photos. I took this crystal clear photo a couple of weeks ago.

As you can see, the picture is perfect so I publish it here for you all to see.

Don't forget – this is YOUR mag for printing YOUR stuff.

Send me your comments, your photos, artwork, jokes, grumbles (and any unwanted cash) to jim@ashbysoft.com

It will all get used (especially the cash)

Please Welcome

Mike Van Vuuren
and Kirstine Heald to the club.

When Jon had trouble with spelling her name she made the mistake of saying "Oh just call me Boris"
I think you may be stuck with that one Kirstine.

And another new member to welcome

This is Terry Moyse.
Welcome to the club
Terry.

Hope you enjoy shooting with us.

John's Oliver Hardy tribute act practicing his version of the 'collapsing deck chair ' routine. He is hoping to perfect it in time for the Christmas party.

The King of Bling

Alan (Midas) Munson spotted adding more gold bling to his kit. He now has to wear sunglasses to shoot.

Roy's Blue Bloomers

Roy and I were talking about the brilliant roses that are on display this year in our gardens.

I mentioned that although I had roses of most colours in my garden, the one which I had no success with was the blue one.

Roy sent me this picture of his to show me how it should be done.

Can one be 'blue' with envy?

Can you guess who this abandoned child is?

Don't forget the pub card! Two for £1.

Hmm no suckers here. I think I'll try again in a few years.
